

ROLE PLAY

Mary Sandburg is in tears most of the time. She has been an excellent clerk for a number of years. A few weeks ago she learned that her boyfriend, who is a soldier, was to be transferred to Germany. He refuses to marry her and take her with him. It's difficult to help Mary because she has developed a depressed attitude toward everyone and everything. She feels that the entire world is against her.